CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Grow your medical logistics business

Becton Dickinson | 12-Month Enterprise & Supplier Development Programme

Built to deliver.
Ready to grow?

Specialised healthcare logistics

Medical equipment & consumables

Becton Dickinson (BD), together with Aurik Enterprise Development, invites qualifying SMEs to apply for a 12-month ESD programme focused on building business capability and readiness for medical logistics opportunities.

01 Business size & ownership

- At least 51% Black-owned.
- Based in Gauteng, with national coverage.
- EME: Turnover equal or below R5 million.
- QSE: Turnover above R5 million and below R35 million.
- At least 2 people actively involved in the business.
- Have suitably qualified and dedicated staff that can handle and track sensitive medical equipment.

02 Offering & experience

- Healthcare logistics businesses able to provide equipment collection, delivery and storage; case preparation and hospital stock counts.
- Business with at least 3 years in medical logistics.
- Owner with 5+ years in the industry.
- Comparable contracts or contactable references required.

03 Technical capability

- The businesses must have a secure and appropriately controlled storage facility.
- Dedicated or scalable fleet suitable for brachytherapy and Encor biopsy equipment.
- The businesses must be willing to take on current BD vehicles and lease-transfer options where applicable.
- Must have a vehicle replacement and sustainment strategy including kitting and tailgate requirements.
- Provide custody insurance for equipment and devices, and operational liability cover.

04 Accreditation & compliance

- Wholesalers: a wholesaler establishment licence and an up-to-date Site Master Fille.
- Manufactures/distributors: a manufacturer or distributor establishment licence supported by valid ISO 13485
- Certification must be issued by a conformity assessment body recognized by SAHPRA : SAHPRA
- TAPA certification or equivalent risk-mitigation controls acceptable to BD, supported by evidence and subject to technical assessment.

Register here Registration Closes: 04 December 2026

Click here to apply

OR
Scan QR Code

Registered businesses will be required to attend a mandatory briefing session. Details will be shared after registration.

Enquiries: Andiswa Vena

Email address: andiswa@aurik.co.za | Telephone number: 27 (11) 447 5575

AURIK Enterprise Development