About Me

I am the founder of MTENGO Courier Services, a Black-owned company that brings delivery and cleaning services to rural and peri-urban communities. My goal is to make sure people in villages and small towns can get goods and services easily, without traveling far.

Education & Skills

- Business compliance
- Short courses in logistics, transport management, OSH Act, and SHE Rep.
- Skilled in writing business proposals and funding applications.
- Able to manage operations with digital tools and websites.

Achievements

- Registered MTENGO Courier Services and built it from the ground up.
- Prepared company profiles, business plans, and compliance documents.
- Created a professional website to show MTENGO's services.
- Researched rural communities to understand their delivery needs.

Vision

My dream is to grow MTENGO into South Africa's leading last-mile delivery company for rural and peri-urban areas. This will help create jobs for youth, women, and people with disabilities, while giving communities better access to goods and services.
